In this month's newsletter, we're introducing you to Alicia and Mike Hernon of the Messy Family Project who will be speaking on this year's cruise and also providing more information about our final port of call, CocoCay, Bahamas.

Additionally, we also would like to invite you to pray a 54 day novena with us in advance of sailing in partnership with Hallow!

CocoCay, Bahamas

The final stop on this year's Good News Cruise is CocoCay, Bahamas! CocoCay is one of the Berry Islands, a collection of Bahamian cays and small islands located approximately 55 miles north of Nassau. The island is owned and used exclusively by Royal Caribbean.

If you're looking to relax in our final port, multiple options await! Wind down shoreside in a private cabana at Chill Island or level up your lounge game along the infinity pool at Coco Beach Club. Looking for a more exciting end to your vacation? Consider ziplining across the sunny, blue sky or going up in a hot air balloon for 360 degree views of the ocean!

Dining is also a highlight on CocoCay. Delicious chicken wings and harborside views await at Captain Jack's and freshly grilled burgers are available at Skipper's Grill. If you're looking for a more traditional menu, Chill Grill offers a full menu of Caribbean-style bites!

54 Day Marriage Novena in Partnership with Hallow

This year in advance of sailing we would like to invite you to pray a 54 day marriage novena with us! Our great friends at Hallow will be setting up a community group for us on the app where we can pray together.

We will be asking the Holy Spirit to bless us on our cruise and open our heart to act powerfully in our marriages and families. This same 54 Day Novena has been prayed before each of the previous Good News Cruises™ and we want to invite you all to pray with us!

The novena will start on December 4 and end on January 26 - the night of our pre-sail event with Kimberly and Dr. Scott Hahn. We will be sending a separate communication when the group is live on the Hallow app to help you get set up. In the meantime, you might consider downloading the app, if you don't have it already!

To all of our enrolled guests, we express our sincere gratitude for making the Good News Cruise™ a part of your plans for 2024. If you've missed any of the previous newsletters and would like to access them, you can find them at the link here.

We look forward to serving you soon,
